Midst the wealth of facts and fancies
That our memories may recall,
Thus the old school-day romances
Are the dearest, after all! —
When some sweet thought revises
The half-forgotten tune
That opened "Exercises" .
On "Friday Afternoon."

DEDICATION

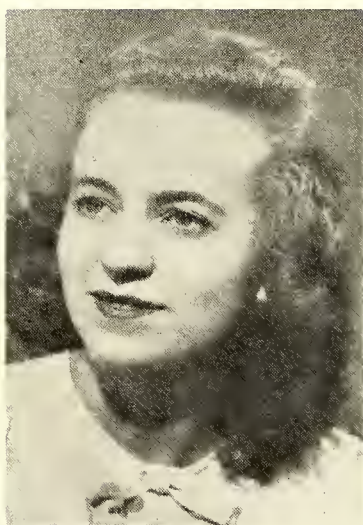

We, the Seniors of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, proudly and sincerely dedicate our annual to Miss Flossie Martin. We wish to express our deepest gratitude for her unfailing loyalty, her helpfulness and encouragement, her constant striving to raise the standard of our ideals, and her understanding patience. May this gesture in some small way show our appreciation to her.

The two were standing outside in the warm spring air. Looking up at the building, of which they had been such a vital part, she said sadly, "Bill, it's over." Bill answered, "Yes, Betty, after twelve short years we're graduated." And to them, at that moment it seemed like the end of life.

Yet this was not the end for Bill and Betty, the spirits of the Seniors. They who inspired the Seniors of 1950 will never die. They will remain as long as there is a M.H.S.

CLASS HISTORY

EXCERPTS FROM THE DIARY OF BETTY

September 1, 1946

Today I am a freshman. I am actually entering high school along with sixty-five of the most talented freshmen ever to enter the doors of Mocksville High School.

September 3, 1946

I wonder if the class did the right thing today. We elected homeroom officers instead of class officers on the advice of our teachers, Miss Madeline Smoot and Mrs. D. C. Rankin. Oh, I guess so. Maybe we'll get to know each other better.

November 1, 1946

Boy, we almost won. Bill Benson and Cynthia Clement really gave those other candidates a close race for King and Queen. The cutest boy moved to Mocksville this week. His name is Bill.

August 28, 1947

I am a sophomore—gosh, I feel older. I sure hope we have class officers this year. We (that is Bill and I) are separated this year. I had to go in Miss Jean Brook's room while Bill was sent to Mr. Leo Williams' room. There were a few new faces in our midst. One belonged to Betty Sue Whitaker, who sat beside me. I hope Bill didn't notice her.

October 1, 1947

Since our plan of having home room officers worked so well last year, we decided to continue it this year.

October 31, 1947

Just got back from the Halloween Carnival and even though our candidates for King and Queen, Jack LeGrand and Peggy Graham, didn't win, it was a wonderful evening. The seniors presented a hair-raising mystery play and Bill actually held my hand.

Flash—Bill and I both made the basketball teams (even if we are subs).

September 1, 1948

It has taken only one day to find out how much fun we Juniors are going to have this year. Mr. Williams has the honor to be one of our home room teachers again, but Bill and I have Miss Flossie Martin for ours.

September 10, 1948

Today, realizing the special need for class organization, we elected Junior class officers as follows: Archie Jones, president; Johnny Durham, vice-president; Betty Sue Whitaker, secretary; Elizabeth Allen, treasurer.

October 31, 1948

Sad to say, our candidates for King and Queen, Donald Riddle and Shirley Shell, did not win, but there is always hope for next year. Wouldn't Bill make a good king????

November 15, 1948

Money, money, money: oh, how we need it. Here we are going from door to door selling magazines, and at each ball game we slave selling drinks and candy. And it's all just to give those seniors a banquet!!!! (Maybe Bill will take me.)

March 25, 1949

Only six days until the banquet and Bill hasn't asked me yet. How do you drop a hint like that to a boy????

April 1, 1949

Well, it's all over (the banquet, that is) and it was wonderful. Bill took me and even remembered flowers. Every time I hear "The Stars Will Remember" I'll think of that wonderful evening at the Salisbury Country Club, and how nervous Johnny Durham, the master of ceremonies, was.

April 30, 1949

The talent of our class was really brimming over tonight or the "Harvest Queen," our Junior play, was a great success.

May 1, 1949

You should have seen the beaming faces of Betty Etchison, Mary Jane McClamrock, Betty Sue Whitaker, Ruby Jean Sheets, Jessie Ruth Steelman, Sara Dot Call, and Johnny Durham for they were selected to be Marshals. I guess my mind must be on other things for my grades were—!!!!???

May 5, 1949

Johnny Durham was named Editor of HJ-LIFE today and Betty Sue Whitaker was made Business Manager. The rest of the staff will probably be posted tomorrow. Hope I'm on it.

May 12, 1949

Oh, those proud, proud Juniors that were tapped for Beta Club today. I know how happy they must be.

May 17, 1949

We ordered our Class rings today, and I got a large one so I can let Bill wear mine, that is, if he lets me wear his.

September 1, 1949

As Bill and I made our way to school this morning we were excited and happy but a little sad underneath because we knew this would be the last time that we would experience the thrill of an opening day. We felt lost when we entered the building because of so many wonderful changes being made. We missed the face of Sara Dot Call, our Chief Marshal, who had gone to Brevard College during the summer and had graduated, and the faces of others of our classmates who for various reasons had not returned. However, a few new faces appeared to replace them. Our home room teachers are Mrs. Janie Tarlton and Miss Martha Lippard.

September 21, 1949

Today we chose the people to lead our class for the final and most important year. We elected Letty Jean Foster as president; Donald Riddle as vice-president; Elizabeth Allen as secretary, and Mary Jane McClamrock as treasurer.

September 29, 1949

In the midst of a class meeting this morning, Mr. Farthing interrupted to announce that our long-awaited Class Rings had arrived. Of course, that broke up the meeting. Our rings are beautiful with oval ruby sets and the State Seal on either side. Bill let me try his on for size.

October 5, 1949

Today we learned that we could not have a Halloween Carnival or Parade due to the rebuilding that is being carried on.

May 23, 1950

Tonight, we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, walked for the last time as Seniors of Mocksville High School down the aisle of the new auditorium. And now looking back, Bill and I have recalled other memories which made our Senior year the most wonderful of them all.

Many of our class members have gained recognition this year: Bill "Choo-Choo" Vick, Donald Riddle, Bill Winters, Jimmy Campbell, E. M. Foster, Jack LeGrand, Benny Naylor, Madison Angell, James Hendricks, Archie Jones, Bill Mason, Shirley Shell, Mary Nell Allen, Dorothy Shore, and Helen Brown were all outstanding in sports.

We will always remember the wonderful "HI-LIFES" that Editor Johnny Durham and his staff put out, and we certainly couldn't forget how hard Letty Jean Foster and her staff worked on the Annual.

Archie Jones, as Student Council President, did much to better the conditions of our school; Jane Dwiggins, as Chief Cheerleader, helped to boost our school spirit higher, and of course we couldn't forget how Helen Brown came to school for twelve whole years without missing a day.

But all that is over now, and everyone will be going his own way, including Bill and me. It has been fun and I'll never forget those wonderful years at Mocksville High School and the people that helped make them so.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

I, Sarah Elizabeth Allen, leave my way of always being around when needed to Shirley Lagle.

I, Mary Nell Allen, will my dynamic personality to Betty Sue White so she may always be cheerful like I am.

I, Bobbie Jean Angell, will all my boy-friends to Betty Frost to mix with hers so she will never have a dull moment.

I, Tilden Madison Angell, will my ability to go with the captain of the girls' basketball team to L. D. Hendricks, providing it isn't the same captain.

I, Sara Jane Beaver, leave my artistic ability to Gerylene Vick with the hopes that she will have a chance to use it more than I did.

I, Clinton Carl Boger, will my ability to get along with people to Henry Boger so he may add more friends to his collection.

I, Jack Harding Boger, leave my cute ways to the Junior boys to be divided equally among them.

I, Helen Brown, will my sewing talent to Betty Walker so she will continue to be as neat as she now is.

I, Lelia Ann Burton, leave my habit of saying the wrong thing at the wrong time to Mary Lois Gaither with the hope it doesn't get her into as much trouble as it has me.

I, James Thomas Campbell, leave my "Prince Charming" title to Bill Arnsworthy on the condition he return it unharmed.

I, Notie Athalene Carter, will my hair to Carmen Greene so she can keep a steady boy-friend always attached to her.

I, Cynthia Ann Clement, bequeath my gaiety to Nan Bowden, providing she will return it after next year.

I, Betty Jean Daniel, will my beauty to Lucille Tucker to mix with hers.

I, Johnny Edward Durham, will my ability to run M.H.S. to Guy Farthing so it will keep on the move.

I, Jane Carolyn Dwiggin, leave my position as chief cheerleader to Billie Angell with the hopes she won't have as many troubles as I have had.

I, Gerald Elmo Elam, leave my studious ways to Johnny Foster on the condition that he will use them.

I, Betty Frances Etchison, will my intelligence to J. B. Dunn so he can make good grades his remaining three years at M.H.S.

I, Bobby Mac Foster, will my pipe to Donald Hendricks so he may also look dignified.

I, Letty Jean Foster, will my voice to Jane Click so she may make others happy with it.

I, Edward Gaither, leave my dependability to Douglas Daniel.

I, James Hendricks, leave my basketball ability to Larry Foster so he may keep improving.

I, Sara Hendrix, will my efficient ways to Jean Smith to add to hers.

I, Coleen Elizabeth Howell, leave all my past romances to Maxine Smith since I won't need them anymore.

I, Archie Valejo Jones, will my big, black overcoat and my hair to little George Winters so he can look stupid just as I did.

I, Leon Ladd, leave my mischievous ways to Charlie Johnson to add to his own.

I, Thelma Laird, leave my quiet ways to Delbert Foster—I am sure his future teachers will be glad.

I, Jack LeGrand, give my title of "Most Handsome" to Lawrence Carter if he won't let it make him conceited.

I, Tommy LeGrande, will my habit of not taking any books home to Gary Hursey, even though he seems to already have this habit.

I, Brady Lee Leonard, leave my habit of tying Miss Lippard's window shade cords together to Guy Hartman so he may continue to annoy her.

I, Betty Lou Martin, leave my ability to hold a steady boy-friend to Ruby Nell Everhart, although she doesn't seem to need any assistance.

I, Mary Frances Martin, will my ability to creep around silent as a mouse to Bob Tenery.

I, Bill Mason, bequeath my "wit" to James Howard whether he needs it or not.

I, Mary Jane McClamrock, leave my explosive giggles to Carolyn Ferebee on the condition she will leave me a few.

I, Iva Nell McDaniel, will my enchanting smile to Naomi Riddle, providing she does it no damage.

I, Benny Naylor, leave my "come hither" ways to Johnny Naylor so that they may stay in the Naylor family.

I, Lucille Potts, bequeath my smiles to Jo Ann Marshall so she may always have a sunny outlook on life.

I, Janie Powell, will my pretty brown eyes to Edith Grey Sheek so she may continue to hold her steady.

I, Donald Rich Riddle, bequeath my ability to get along with everyone to Bill Sofley.

I, John Roberts, leave my black hair to Eugene Boger to mix with his red.

I, Glenna Jean Robertson, will my ability to be stern one minute and pleasant the next to Jane Smith in order that the teachers may have variety in the classes.

I, Mary Eliza Sain, leave my habit of finishing typing before the period is over to Roger Whittaker so Mrs. Wagner won't miss me so much.

I, Ruby Jean Sheets, will my habit of breaking out into a song at the oddest moments to Ann Poston, so everyone at M.H.S. will be able to keep up with the latest songs.

I, Shirley Shell, leave my title as captain of the basketball team to Nancy Latham, providing she will work as hard as I have.

I, Dorothy Irene Shore, bequeath my habit of fouling out of basketball games to Camilla James, on the condition she won't make as many as I have.

I, Jessie Ruth Steelman, leave my great imagination to Dorothy Morris so Miss Lippard will continue to enjoy her English class.

I, Grady Trivette, will my job as bus driver to Joe Ferebee, providing he won't come in late every morning.

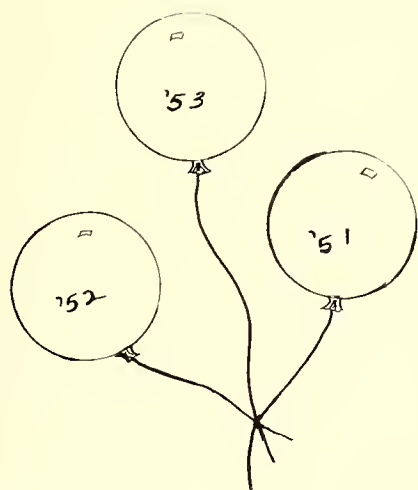

I, Bill Vick, leave my "Choo-Choo" title to Farrell Cohen if he promises to make as many touchdowns as I have.

I, Germaine Wellman, bequeath my ability to keep my mouth shut to Cathryn Neely so someone else will have a chance to talk.

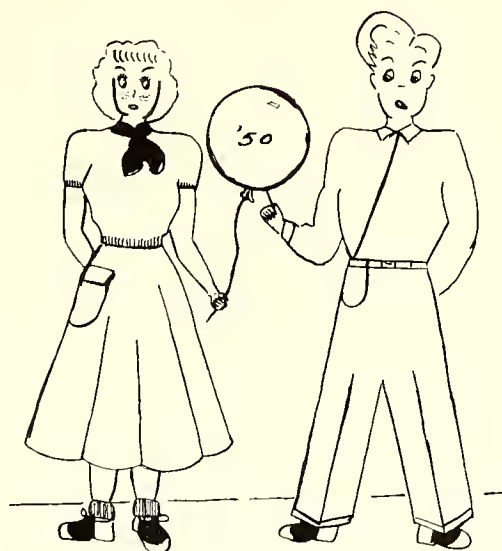

I, Betty Sue Whittaker, leave my habit of coming to school in such a happy mood on Monday mornings to Mary Elizabeth Smith.

I, Nellie Williams, will my friendly disposition to Alice Hayes so she will have as many friends as I have.

I, Bill Winters, bequeath my football playing ability to Joe Murphy, if he will gain a little weight.

PRIMARY AND ELEMENTARY GRADES

MOCKSVILLE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

'Twas in the prime of summer time
An evening calm and cool
And four and twenty happy boys
Came bounding out of school:
There were some that ran, and some that leapt
Like troutlets in a pool.
